

BPS Acceptable Use Policy Glossary of Terms Grades K-2

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY: A paper parents and children write their names on. Their names mean that the children will follow the computer rules

AUP: A short way to write Acceptable Use Policy

CONTRACT: A paper with rules on it that a person writes his name on. His name means he will follow the rules.

SIGN: To write your name

PRIVILEGE: Something you get to do because you are trusted to follow the rules

CONSEQUENCES: punishments for not following rules

PROPER: The right way to behave. Example: It is proper to stand quietly in line at school.